

General Information for Volunteers

- Each of you is critical to the smooth operation of the weekend of events and creating a positive, fun experience for all the runners and spectators
- Focus on being helpful to all our guests
- Smile and be courteous at all times
- You will be notified of your assignment and reporting instructions in late-April
- You will receive your volunteer t-shirt upon reporting to your assignment
- Please wear your official volunteer t-shirt at all times
- All volunteers are welcome to the Post-race party at the finish line
- Dress comfortably and for the weather
- Volunteers working on Sunday should be prepared for an early reporting time and a long day
- Learn as much as you can about the marathon and your area through information provided on the Flying Pig website, www.flyingpigmarathon.com
- Please stay in your designated area throughout your assignment
- Direct any questions to your assigned Marathon Volunteer Captain
- Bring a cell phone if possible
- Do not bring any valuables to your assignment. The Marathon can not assume responsibility for lost or stolen items.
- In case of a medical emergency of runners, spectators, or other volunteers, contact official volunteer medical personnel (red t-shirted volunteers) immediately
- Have FUN
- Thanks for volunteering
